

Comparative Table for the Revision for FLIP Consortium Overseas Membership Terms and Conditions

The Overseas Members at the time of this revision, these Terms and Conditions shall be effective on September 7, 2026 and applied from October 8, 2026.

| Article:                                                                        | Before the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | After the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Article 3.Admission,Readmission andChange to OverseasMembership | 7. The Overseas Member who lost its membership due to any other reasons than voluntary withdrawal shall not be allowed readmittance to the overseas membership.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | (Deleted)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Article 14.Loss of Membership                                               | The Overseas Member will lose its membership in the following cases; (1) Voluntary Withdrawal from Membership The Overseas Member is free to withdraw from its membership at any time by submitting the Notice of Withdrawal in the form set out separately by the FLIP Consortium, provided that none of the reasons set forth in the Item (2) nor (3) of this Article apply. (Omitted) The FLIP Consortium shall notify the Overseas Member of the loss of eligibility in writing with the exception of (c). (None) | 1. The Overseas Member will lose its membership in the following cases; (1) Voluntary Withdrawal from Membership The Overseas Member is free to withdraw from its membership at any time by submitting the Notice of Withdrawal in the form set out separately by the FLIP Consortium, provided that none of the reasons set forth in the Item (2) nor (3) of this Article apply. (Omitted) The FLIP Consortium shall notify the Overseas Member of the loss of eligibility in writing with the exception of (c). 2. With respect to an Overseas Member who has been expelled or has lost its eligibility pursuant to Paragraphs (2) and (3) of the preceding paragraph, the FLIP Consortium may publish the name of such member or, in the case of a corporate member, its corporate name, and the date of expulsion or loss of eligibility, on the website of the FLIP Consortium or by other appropriate means, for the purpose of ensuring the proper use of the Member Service and enabling third parties to confirm whether such member is eligible for membership and for the use of the Member Service. |

| Article:                                                                                      | Before the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | After the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Article 15.Rights andObligations ofOverseas Memberafter Loss ofMembership | 2. The Overseas Member who has lost its membership due to expulsion or loss of eligibility as set forth in (2) or (3) of Article 14 shall be denied the right of readmission to membership of FLIP Consortium, and shall be no longer eligible for use of the FLIP Programs, manuals, protection key and any other related materials which had been provided during its membership. 7. The Overseas Member, who voluntary withdrew from membership wishes readmit to membership after change to an individual in Japan or juridical person in Japan defined in Item 2 of Article 6 of the Articles of Incorporation, can apply for admission to a General Member or User Member. The eligibility and examination requirement set forth in the “FLIP Consortium General Membership Terms and Conditions”, “Regular Membership Terms and Conditions” or “User Membership Terms and Conditions” will apply at readmission to membership, and the member may not be entitled to the same qualifications and rights as the type of membership that it had before its voluntary withdrawal. Notwithstanding the Item 1. of Article15, the Overseas Members who voluntary withdrew from membership will be able to continue their own use of the FLIP Programs, manuals, protection key and any other related materials which had been provided during its membership, even after their loss of membership. However, in the event that the Overseas member has reached in any situation of (c) or (f) of Article 14. (3) after its voluntary withdrawal, the Overseas Member shall be no longer eligible for the use. | 2. The Overseas Member who has lost its membership due to expulsion or loss of eligibility as set forth in (2) or (3) of Article 14 shall be denied the right of readmission to membership of FLIP Consortium, and shall be no longer eligible for use of the FLIP Programs, Modified FLIP Programs, manuals, protection key and any other related materials which had been provided during its membership. 7. The Overseas Member, who voluntary withdrew from membership wishes readmit to membership after change to an individual in Japan or juridical person in Japan defined in Item 2 of Article 6 of the Articles of Incorporation, can apply for admission to a General Member or User Member. The eligibility and examination requirement set forth in the “FLIP Consortium General Membership Terms and Conditions”, “Regular Membership Terms and Conditions” or “User Membership Terms and Conditions” will apply at readmission to membership, and the member may not be entitled to the same qualifications and rights as the type of membership that it had before its voluntary withdrawal. Notwithstanding the Item 1. of Article15, the Overseas Members who voluntary withdrew from membership will be able to continue their own use of the FLIP Programs (including the manuals, protection key and any other related materials), limited to the versions upgraded or enhanced during its membership, even after their loss of membership. However, in the event that the Overseas member has reached in any situation of (c) or (f) of Article 14. (3) after its voluntary withdrawal, the Overseas Member shall be no longer eligible for the use. |

| Article:                      | Before the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | After the revision:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Article 27.Privacy Policy | The FLIP Consortium shall handle the Overseas Member's name, address, e-mail address, telephone number and any personal information which can be used to identify the Overseas Member, with appropriate and reasonable care in accordance with the Privacy Policy as set forth in the website of the FLIP Consortium (https://www.flip.or.jp). The FLIP Consortium will never disclose the Overseas Member's personally identifiable information to other parties without the consent of the Overseas Member. | The FLIP Consortium shall handle the Overseas Member's name or corporate name, address, telephone number, any other information capable of identifying the individual and information provided by the Overseas Member, with appropriate and reasonable care in accordance with the Privacy Policy as set forth on the website of the FLIP Consortium (https://www.flip.or.jp). Except in the cases set forth in Article 14, Paragraph 2 of these Terms and Conditions, the FLIP Consortium will never disclose such information to other parties without the consent of the Overseas Member. |